

Employee Identification Badges

Alabama

Working as an employee in the cannabis industry comes with great responsibility. Your commitment to integrity and professionalism is what helps move the industry forward!

Protect your employee identification badge, your team, your business. and the industry.

Employees must wear an employee identification badge that clearly identifies them as employees at all times while on duty at the facility. If you don't have your badge, you cannot work without it. You are unable to sign the Visitor Log to get around this requirement.

If your badge is lost or stolen, please report the occurrence to a supervisor to ensure your continued ability to work.
